“ IAQ's vast experience, expert resources and unrivalled track record in this complex area brings you all the advantages of a one-stop shop.

IAQ uses equipment such as:

- Negative air machines and air scrubbers to capture airborne contaminants
- Ozone machines to remove foul smells
- Non-leaching anti-microbial chemicals to control and prevent the spread of microorganisms
- Robotic technology to decontaminate suspect duct-work and inferred and computer aided camera inspections to identify hard to reach problems.
- The latest innovations, such as dry fusion blasting, to decontaminate at the sub-micron level!
- Any many more...
